The ceremony consists of speeches, cultural performances and the lighting of candles, and is attended by representatives of the Norwegian Government, various groups who were victims of the Holocaust, and Jewish schoolchildren. In 2016 Prime Minister Erna Solberg is the main speaker. There will be short speeches from representatives of the Jewish Community in Oslo, Roma people, Prisoners of War, disabled people, Romani, LLH (National Association for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender persons). The ceremony is open to everyone and will be concluded with a gathering at Akershus Fortress. At the Fortress there will be serving of soup, lectures and musical performances.	The memorial to deported Norwegian Jews, Akershuskaia, Oslo

The pupils get to know the stories of Siegmund Korn and Karl Peter Federer, one of them fled Norway and survived, the other was killed in Auschwitz-Birkenau. In the weeks prior to the Holocaust Remembrance Day, pupils around the country are invited to submit questions to be discussed on January 27. Survivor Siegmund Korn will be present on the Holocaust Remembrance Day to answer selected questions and talk about his story with two or three participating school classes. Furthermore, the conversation will be streamed (legge til lenke?). The Education Department at the Holocaust Center has also developed teaching material especially for the Holocaust Remembrance Day.	Artilleriloftet, Akershus Fortress

In coordination with Skogn and Sund college we invite everyone to join us for a commemorative march and memorial service in the Falstad forest, followed by the screening of the 1987 Norwegian movie “The Feldmann Case” at Festiviteten, Levanger. The International Holocaust Remembrance Day is hosted by Falstad on Wednesday 27. January, 2016, on the anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz concentration camp. In 2005 the United Nations General Assembly designated the date for international commemoration honouring the victims of the holocaust. In 2016 we will be focusing on the themes of flight and refuge, and The International Holocaust Remembrance day will be the first in a series of events tied to the tenth year anniversary of The Falstad Centre. Students from the two colleges will participate in various workshops based on the themes and the history of the Falstad prison camp. During this time they will be able to share their reflections with their fellow students on topics ranging from the Norwegian Holocaust, Nazi ideology, prisoner history, human rights and current day issues. After the workshops there will be a torchlight procession to the memorial site at the Falstad Forest. The day will conclude with a student organized concert and photography exhibit at Festiviteten in the city of Levanger, as well as a screening of the Norwegian movie “The Feldmann Case”, detailing the attempted flight of the Jewish Feldmann family from Norway to Sweden in 1942.	Falstad, Nord-Trøndelag
